

Oct
2020

TIANJIN CLINCHES 6TH CHINESE WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE!

As Volleyball games begin to gradually resume, the Chinese Women's Volleyball Championship settled its final game between Shandong and Tianjin. With Tianjin edging out Shandong in the first set (25-21), Shandong responded by winning the next set (25-16) after building a 10 point lead of 17-7. The game seemed to be heading towards an-eye-for-an-eye as Tianjin came back stronger in the third set by pulling away 14-2, which they then won (25-11). However in the fourth set, Tianjin put the battle at rest as they overcame the opponents 25-12, emerging as overall winners.

Results

Tianjin vs Shandong: 3-1 (25-21, 16-25, 25-11, 25-12)

FIVB PLAYER OF THE WEEK: GORD PERRIN

The 31-year-old outside hitter first wore the Canadian jersey back in 2009 when he was a student-athlete. 10 years on, he has made tremendous achievements with the national team, which included 3rd best scorer (individual) and 5th place (team) in the Rio Olympic Games where they also beat Italy and USA in the pool stages (eventual silver & bronze medalists). As team captain in 2010, he led the team to their first ever FIVB World League medal – bronze.

He has spent his club career in 6 countries, with his most recent achievement at Sada Cruzeiro Volei where he won the South American Club Championship, the Brazilian Cup and the Mineiro Championship, not to mention also taking silver at the FIVB Volleyball Men's Club World Championship.

Perrin is back in Russia where he previously won the Challenger Cup with Belogorie Belgorod in 2018-19; this time in Ural Ufa.